New Smyrna Beach FL

Victim Information: Terrill Jefferson b/m of New Smyrna Beach

Suspect Information: b/m 6'1" medium build / possibly driving a grey or silver SUV or van

Synopsis of Incident:

At around 5:32 p.m. today, New Smyrna Beach Police officers responded to a shooting call that came in through 911. Police caught up with the victim, Terrill Jefferson at the Marathon gas station in New Smyrna Beach where they quickly learned the shooting occurred in the 600-blk of Brooks Street. Mr. Jefferson stated he was shot by a black male he doesn't know in the right ear area. Mr. Jefferson immediately left the area in a silver Volkswagen sedan being driven by his girlfriend until meeting with police at the Marathon gas station. Police were able to confirm the location of the incident on Brooks Street where they found one of the victim's shoes. Witnesses in the area could only provide a possible suspect vehicle description of a grey or silver SUV or van leaving the area. Details being provided on the shooting are vague at this point. Police are trying to interview Mr. Jefferson and his girlfriend to gain more insight. Mr. Jefferson was transported to Halifax Hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

Anyone with information is asked to call Investigator Diffin at 386-402-2248 or Crime Stoppers. All callers to Crime Stoppers will remain anonymous.
